ADULT CRAFT NIGHT

Tuesday, November 3

6:00 pm to 7:00 pm

Brooks Room

November's craft is a wooden snowman to start off the holiday season. Due to the high demand for this class and the limited space, we will be opening this to Saugus residents first, then opening spaces up to everyone. Register on the library website: https://www.sauguspubliclibrary.org/events

POP UP ART SCHOOL

FELTED ART WINTER SCENE

Saturday, November 14, 1:00 pm to 2:30 pm

Community Room

Craft a charming winter scene featuring a cozy home in a snowy countryside. Using a barbed felting needle, you'll shape and layer the wool to create a wintry landscape scene nestled into a terra-cotta saucer, creating a frame for the artwork. Registration is required.

Teen Slime Time

Monday, November 2

4:00 pm -5:00 pm

Brooks Room

It's Teen Slime Time again! Come and make some slime of your own to take home. Bring some friends or siblings and create slippery, mucilaginous slime. No registration necessary. Grades 5 and up.

TEENS NEEDED TO MAKE HOLIDAY CARDS FOR SENIORS

Get into the holiday spirit by helping to decorate 130 cards and envelopes for local senior citizens. Ask for the cards, colored pencils, and gel pens at the Reference Desk. The cards will be distributed at the Saugus Senior Center's Christmas Party. Ask staff about receiving community service hours for helping to make people smile during the holidays!
